Diet's Remaining 33 Communists Declare War On "Conspiracies to Out-law Party"

HINT ANOTHER PURGE

Tokyo, June 8.—(P)—The Diet's remaining 33 Communists today defiantly declared war on "conspiracies" to outlaw the Japanese Red party.

It was the first word from them since General MacArthur purged 41 Communist leaders from Japanese political life. Eight of those removed were members of parliament.

The Red 33 still in parliament pledged to fight the "colonization, military bases and war preparations policies" of the pro-occupation government.

So far the occupation and the government have left the 33 Diet members alone. They are a minority in an assembly of 716 members.

But there was a vague hint of another purge. From Osaka the newspaper Chubu Nippon reported one of Japan's assistant attorney generals said "the third purge of the Communist party will begin late this week."

The Communist Diet members issued their "fight" statement after choosing writer Karoku Hosokawa to lead them in future Diet sessions. He replaces purged Sanzo Nozaka, generally regarded as the brains of the Japan Communist party.

The Reds did not mention MacArthur. But they did refer to the purge he started two days ago by banning 24 members of the party's politburo and yesterday outlawing 17 reputed policy makers of the flamboyant newspaper Akahata, party organ.

Party members thus far have made no overt moves in protest to MacArthur's house cleaning. But Akahata kept up a defiant tone.

The newspaper continued to threaten a general strike "in defense of the Communist party." It announced a protest mass meeting in Kyoto next Tuesday.

One headline claimed "information officers acting as spies—selling out patriots." With the suggestiveness typical of Akahata, this could refer to Japanese police or American counter intelligence agents.

GIRL IS INJURED BY A FIRECRACKER

Pittsburgh, June 8.—(P)—A 16-year-old boy faced juvenile court action today after a Westinghouse High school girl was injured slightly by an exploding firecracker.

Police said the boy bought the fireworks from out-of-state companies. They said they found a cache of fireworks behind a furnace in the boy's home. Sale and use of fireworks has been banned in Pittsburgh for years.

Receipt of Report of Ballistic Tests Confirms Lad's Story in Shooting Case

Sheriff L. E. Linder and State Police today wrote "closed" on the investigation into the mysterious shooting of H. Harrison Keppel, 67, Corby banker near Cole Hill on Wednesday night, May 24.

The officers closed the probe when ballistic tests showed conclusively that the bullet slug recovered in Keppel's car was fired from a high-powered rifle owned by Charles Camp, of Cole Hill.

President Leaves For Two Foreign Policy Talks During Missouri Trip

Washington, June 8.—(P)—President Truman leaves today for two foreign policy talks in Missouri, after asking the nation's prayers for the wisdom to "obtain peace in the world."

"Never in the history of the country has a servant of the people—and that is what the president is—needed your support and your prayers as does the present occupant of the White House," Mr. Truman told a church gathering here yesterday.

In solemn words, he related something of his feeling at this time of his country's "tremendous possibilities" in the cold war.

No man, he said, no matter how great or how informed he may be, is capable of filling the presidency in the manner "in which it ought to be done." He called it "the greatest job in the world."

Standing in the pulpit of the Augustana Evangelical Lutheran church, he told delegates to the 81st national annual synod:

"All any man can do is to do the best he can in the interests of all the people of the United States."

Religious people, the president said, "are the greatest support a free government can have."

Mr. Truman takes off at 3 p. m. in the "Independence" for St. Louis. He cancelled his usual Thursday news conference to work at his desk until departure time.

He speaks first at the University of Missouri at Columbia tomorrow at commencement exercises. He will be awarded an honorary degree of doctor of laws and a Phi Beta Kappa Key.

His other prepared address on foreign policy will be delivered Saturday afternoon in St. Louis at the dedication of Jefferson Park.

All of his visit to Missouri, will not strike the solemn note of his two main speeches.

Reports Received at Meeting Of Committee Show Plans For Celebration Are Progressing

Among the many important announcements made at the meeting of the Fourth of July celebration committee held last evening at eight o'clock at the American Legion Home, was that concerning the Kiltie band, of Toronto, Canada, mentioned elsewhere in this issue, which will be one of the highlights of the Independence Day program.

All projects in connection with the celebration were discussed at length, including the vesper service Sunday evening, July 2, the queen contest, variety show Monday evening, July 3rd, street dance, parade, drum corps competition, fireworks, and other events.

Louis Fredericksen, reporting for the queen contest, said that already a large collection of choice prizes have been offered for the fortunate young lady who will be selected with her court, to reign over the festivities. As announced previously prizes amounting to $100 will be divided, $50 to the queen and $10 each to members of her court. In addition these prizes have been offered: Banquet at the Bide-A-Vee Inn; lane cedar chest from Waxman's Furniture store; chair, Blomquist Furniture store; banquet at the Blue & White restaurant; large supply of nylon hose, J. C. Penney Co. store; airplane tour over Warren and vicinity, King Air Service; party at the Warner Brother's Library theater; complete outfit for the queen, by the Betty Lee store.

The committee was advised that one entry has already been received for the queen contest, a young lady from Youngville, whose identity will be revealed with a list that will be published later.

It was announced that the Rev. Nore Gustafson, president of the Ministerial Association, is making plans for the vesper services to be held the evening of July 2 at the Beatty school plaza.

Survivors of Sea Crash Make Plans To Continue On To Their Employment

Charleston, S. C., July 8.—(P)—Recuperating from a soul-trying experience in shark-infested waters, most of the Puerto Rican survivors of an Atlantic ocean plane crash today made plans to continue on to their work in Michigan sugar beet fields.

Thirty-four of the migratory workers were brought here yesterday, after being picked up early Tuesday morning. Their plane, a C-46 owned by Westair Company of Seattle, Wash., crashed landed 275 miles off Miami Monday night.

There were 65 persons aboard. The pilot, co-pilot and steward also were with those landed here yesterday by the U. S. Navy destroyer escort Saufley. Eight Puerto Ricans are known dead. There is scant hope for the remaining 20.

Despite their harrowing experience in the shark-haunted waters, 28 of the surviving workers plan to continue to Michigan. Three want to return home. Three others are undecided.

As they were being cared for in navy barracks here, representatives of the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Puerto Rican government conducted an investigation of the crash.

Gordon Matthews, assistant head of the CAB's accident investigation branch, was in San Juan. Other officials were conducting an inquiry from this end.

The ship's pilot, interviewed here, credited instinct with a meal (Turn to Page Seventeen)

RING REAPING RICHES FROM DRUG ADDICTS

Washington, June 8.—(P)—Senate investigators studied reports today that a powerful underworld ring is reaping riches from the misery of at least 50,000 drug addicts.

The reports came from Commissioner H. J. Anslinger, of the U. S. Narcotics Bureau. Anslinger's force of 175 agents, some senators say, is too small to cope with the situation.

Anslinger gave his estimate of the number of narcotics addicts to the special committee investigating crime and gambling.

Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn.) told reporters the number represents those who buy narcotics illegally—that is, from sources outside the medical world.

Anslinger has given the senate group a list of 800 persons who, he says, form a criminal ring dealing in narcotics, crime and even murder.

Kefauver said it is obvious that the narcotics traffic extends to every city of any size in the United States.

The committee also is eyeing the gambling situation in the St. Louis area, where state police raided a bookmaker's headquarters Monday. Police were reported to have found confidential files indicating big wagers were being handled through Western Union office managers.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch said the files also showed that Western Union managers were offered a 25 per cent cut in bookie winnings on horse race bets transmitted by wire.

New Flasher Lights Explained By Official

Attention of motorists is called to the change in operation of the borough's traffic signals during the late evening and early morning hours.

Formerly, the traffic lights on all but the main intersections were turned off. Now they operate on a flashing system.

Flashing yellow, the burgess said, gives the driver the right of way, but caution is urged in entering the intersection.

Flashing red is a signal for a complete stop, the same as a through-traffic stop sign.

Mystery Surrounds Finding of Body Of Slain Woman

St. Clairsville, O., June 8.—(P)—Police believe today that a 38-year-old divorcee whose bludgeoned body was found in an abandoned saw mill near here may have been slain at her home in Pennsylvania about 30 miles away.

But they still were without a motive in the slaying of Mrs. Ethel Henry of West Alexander, Pa.

A blood-stained axe was found in her blood-stained home and turned over to Washington county, Pa., officials at West Valley.

The slaying was uncovered by officials investigating the suicide of Paul Huntsman, 50, last Monday in Valley Grove, W. Va., about 19 miles from Fairport, O., where Mrs. Henry's body was found.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Ralph Leport of Ohio county (Wheeling) W. Va., said a note on Huntsman's body—found hanging from a tree near a tavern—sent searchers on (Turn to Page Seventeen)

Three-Year Extension of Peacetime Draft Act Recommended By Committee

Washington, June 8.—(P)—A three-year extension of the peacetime draft act was recommended to the senate today by its armed services committee.

The present draft act is due to expire June 24. The senate bill would continue the president's power to order actual inductions of youths between 18 and 26 years if he found that necessary.

It also includes an amendment by Senator Russell (D-Ga.) to require racial segregation in any of the armed services if it is requested in writing by any person drafted.

Under direction of President Truman all of the Armed services—Army, Navy and Air Force—have been gradually eliminating segregation of whites and negroes.

The Russell amendment apparently would require separate racial units for draftees who requested it. The senate bill differs widely from one previously passed by the house and on which senate hearings were held.

The house bill extended the present act for only two years instead of three asked by the administration. It also gives congress control over actual inductions. Men could not be drafted until the lawmakers declared a national emergency or found that inductions were needed to meet manpower needs by concurrent resolution.

The senate committee acted behind closed-doors and a report on actual votes was not immediately available.

Before the committee acted, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States had issued a statement urging extension of the draft act for three years and giving the president power to order inductions.

Problems Facing Graduates Outlined By Eisenhower In Speech at Columbia

New York, June 8.—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today that huge military expenditures are necessary but "if unwatched, may dangerously bleed the economy and even destroy what we seek to protect."

Eisenhower made the statement in a speech prepared for the 196th commencement exercises of Columbia University, which he heads.

He told the Columbia graduates that "stupendous military expenditures," though "essential for the country's safety," are one of the major problems to be faced in the future.

Eisenhower recently said before a U. S. senate appropriations subcommittee that our military budget had been trimmed as far as was wise—"even too far."

He said at that time that he might have added a few hundred million dollars—not more than $500,000,000—to the proposed budget for arms, if he had his way.

However, before the committee he also listed a healthy economy as an essential for national safety.

Gen. Eisenhower said today that the danger of wrong answers to the nation's own problems is as critical as the danger from "world revolution, with an announced purpose of destroying the American system of government."

He listed among the problems the graduates must face: "The growing and, apparently, voluntary dependence of many groups upon government subsidies."

"The future character of our medical care and of our educational system;" (Turn to Page Seventeen)

FORRESTAL IS SAID TO HAVE GIVEN ORDERS

Senate Group Is Centering Its Attention on Question Of Who Delayed Arrests in Affair

WAS NAVAL SECRETARY

Washington, June 2.—(P)—A congressional source said today that a secret federal grand jury is looking into the 1945 Amerasia case in New York.

The source, who asked not to be named, said the grand jury has called many of the witnesses who have appeared before a senate committee which is looking into the secret documents case.

The senate group is centering its attention on the question of who delayed arrests in the affair.

It is reported to have received secret testimony that the late James V. Forrestal probably advised delaying them.

A source in close touch with the senate inquiry into the secret documents case told a reporter the testimony came from Assistant Attorney General James M. McInerney, chief of the Justice Department's criminal division. The source asked not to be named.

Forrestal was secretary of the Navy at the time the case broke five years ago. Later he became secretary of defense. He was killed last year in a plunge from an upper floor of the Naval Medical Center at nearby Bethesda, Md.

The information about the testimony regarding Forrestal came to light in the wake of still another authoritative report that the committee got testimony yesterday that former Presidential Aid James K. Vardaman may have tried to delay prosecution in the hotly-disputed Amerasia case.

Vardaman emphatically denied it to a reporter last night.

McInerney's testimony was taken by the committee last month at a series of sessions behind closed doors.

An informant said McInerney first told the committee he seemed to recall that Forrestal had asked the Justice Department to delay the arrest of the six persons accused. They were taken into custody (Turn to Page Seventeen)

Strike Threatens Deliveries of Milk

Pittsburgh, June 8.—(P)—A strike of 3,250 AFL Dairy employees set for one minute after midnight tonight threatens the milk supply of 5,000,000 western Pennsylvanians in seven counties.

Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh is hurrying home from Washington to try for a last-minute settlement or postponement of Federal Mediator Charles Ward already on the scene.

The area involved embraces Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Lawrence, Washington, Greene and Fayette counties.

The strike call came a few hours after a meeting with the great Pittsburgh Milk Dealers Association.

"Mayor Lawrence said the walk out 'would be a calamity in Pittsburgh,'" the union declared.

The union declared deliveries will continue to hospitals, homes for the aged and orphanages. It also set up a program to take care of infants feeding on formula and invalids and other cases requiring milk products.

Oil Producers Continue To Press Fight For Restrictions On Imports of Crude

Washington, June 8.—(P)—Following a setback in the house ways and means committee, coal and independent oil producers pressed their fight before two other congressional groups today for restrictions on oil imports.

Despite the claim that fuel oil imports are causing rising unemployment in domestic industries, the ways and means committee yesterday turned down a proposal to raise the oil tariff from the present 10½ cents a barrel to 84 cents.

Although backers of the proposal insisted that it would have brought in an additional $175,000,000 a year in revenue, the administration has opposed it on grounds that it would hurt the reciprocal trade program.

House and senate labor subcommittees are looking into the oil problem, spurred by protest from railroads, coal producers, the dependent oil producers and other mining industries that they are being damaged by competition from foreign oil.

Chairman Neely (D-W.Va.) of the senate group said yesterday it agrees with that view. If the administration won't take remedial steps, he said, congress must.

Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.) told senators President Truman has power either to place foreign (Turn to Page Seventeen)

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pen and energy, headaches and dizziness. June 10th Is Deadline for Nominating Ambassadors for Pennsylvania Week

Harrisburg—Local commercial, civic and service organizations are reminded by Secretary of Commerce Theodore Roosevelt III that June 10 is the deadline for nominating distinguished former residents for recognition as Pennsylvania Ambassadors during Pennsylvania Week next October 16 to 22.

Nominations should be submitted to the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce, Harrisburg, which is sponsoring the "Ambassador" feature of Pennsylvania Week for the third successive year. This statewide business organization serves as sponsor at the request of the State Department of Commerce.

The Pennsylvania Ambassador program was a feature attraction of last year's Pennsylvania Week celebration in many communities, and we anticipate that even more communities will participate this year," said Mr. Roosevelt. "Out of 26 Ambassadors chosen in 1949 all but five returned to their former home towns to receive their awards in person at community ceremonies."

This year's Ambassadors will be selected by a 20-member State Chamber awards committee which will meet in Harrisburg sometime in July. The committee, headed by Pressly H. McCance, Pittsburgh, will limit its selections to former Pennsylvanians, both men and women, who now reside outside the state. They must be nominated by organizations in their former home town. Last year, 90 persons were nominated, of whom 22 men and four women were given awards.

The awards committee is made up of representatives of leading organizations and professions in the Commonwealth. Five of the members represent women's groups. Chairman McCance, who is president of Duquesne Light Co., served as State Chairman of Pennsylvania Week last year.

This year's Ambassadors will again receive handsome four-color scrolls and aluminum plaques. The scrolls, bearing the coat-of-arms of the Commonwealth, are signed by the Governor, Secretary of Commerce, and the President of the State Chamber and the home town sponsoring organization. The aluminum plaques are presented by the Aluminum Company of America, Pittsburgh.

Secretary Roosevelt reported that over 50 community organizations throughout the state already have submitted nominations to the State Chamber of Commerce for this year's awards or have indicated that they plan to do so. Nomination blanks will be furnished by the State Chamber upon request.

Reynoldsville Will Be Scene of Dist. Flag Day Exercises

CONGRATULATIONS - - CLASS OF 1950!

Tonight approximately 224 seniors of Warren High School receive their diplomas at the annual commencement exercises to be held in the First Presbyterian church.

These 224 young people have come to the end of one phase of their life - - a happy and profitable one.

Commencement seems to be the proper word to use as these students complete their high school education, for they, as graduates, commence a new educational program and probably each of the 224 will have a different course of "study" as they take their place in the world.

A famous educator once said: "My education did not really start until I was sixty years old and then it was only after I found how little I knew."

Education is something that continues throughout one's life—it never ends.

Among the many commencement addresses that have or will be heard this month, none is likely to exceed in pithiness that of Lieut. Gov. Joe R. Hanley, of New York, as delivered at Ithaca College.

"We have," he said, "a surplus of graduates and a lack of educated persons."

"Education," he went on, "means understanding, ability to serve, knowing one's own capabilities, diligence and appreciation."

"Education means the complete life. The more one knows and understands the more one realizes that man does not live by bread alone."

"It is not enough to polish the mind; you must create character."

"Those who contend that the world owes them a proper existence are not educated—they are only graduated."

"Success is not measured by the ease with which you live, nor by what you take out of society, but what you put into it. The day has gone by when anyone can be a drone. You must contribute to society. Education trains you for this service. In all fields of endeavor there is the cry for those who are willing to serve."

The entire community joins in wishing the 224 graduates of 1950 the very best that life can give them in attainment, happiness and good citizenship.

ADJOURNMENT PLANS DELAYED

Congressional leaders don't see adjournment in sight before Labor Day, says Business Week.

Primaries aren't bringing any rush to adjourn. Of 150 primary contests, Sen. Pepper of Florida, is the only sitting member defeated. Sen. Graham of North Carolina faces a run-off.

The magazine notes that union power in Congress is weakened with the advancement of Barden of North Carolina to the chairmanship of the House Labor Committee. Although Barden isn't anti-labor, he thinks management should have an even break.

"Taft-Hartley repeal is less likely than ever," the article says. "Barden would go along with some revision, but not on scrapping the law, which is what Truman wants."

"Aid to education may come to life. Barden wants a public school bill and Speaker Rayburn now has a chance to end the committee deadlock when he fills the vacancy caused by the death of a committee chairman Lesinski."

LET'S NOT STOP NOW

It is good news that the U. S. has launched its first postwar passenger liner. When the American Export Lines' S. S. Independence went down the ways at Quincy, Mass., it ended 11 years of inactivity in the building of luxury vessels.

This September the Independence's sister ship, the Constitution, will be launched. Four other liners, including a $70,000,000 giant to compete with Britain's Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth, are under construction.

Unfortunately no additional vessels are planned as a follow-up to this hopeful revival in U. S. passenger ship-building. America has considerably less capacity than before the war for carrying troops overseas in event of war. Security demands that we go farther in expanding our own passenger fleet.

Announcement that the Canadian Legion Pipe Band, of Toronto, has been secured as a feature of the Fourth of July parade and program for the holiday should serve to spur contributions to this event which promises to exceed anything ever attempted in Warren. Not since the days of the county fair on the site of the present Watson Home, has a Canadian Kiltie band been seen and heard in Warren, and any person who had the pleasure of listening to them at that time will never forget the thrilling performances they give. The band will carry the Canadian National colors in the parade and will appear at about the middle of the line of formation. Don't wait to be asked for donations to the Celebration Fund!

Here And There

Mountain Laurel, (kalmia latifolia) the official flower of the state of Pennsylvania, should be in full bloom this year during the last ten days of June and into the early weeks of July, officials of the Department of Forests and Waters have announced. The department, "custodian" of the colorful shrub, said scores of inquiries have been received requesting information on the "peak of the season". The blooms attract thousands of tourists from all over the country. The shrub grows throughout the state, but is most common in the mountainous sections where it forms almost impenetrable thickets, foresters add. In Warren county it will be found in large quantities in the Cherry Grove and Scandia areas, as well as other sections.

LeRoy Salerno, 313 Hazel street, Eagle Scout, member of Troop 8, second prize winner in a recent essay contest, will be the Times-Mirror correspondent at the Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge June 20 to July 6th. He will cover the activities of the Warren group which will consist of 34 boys and three leaders, from the time they leave here by special bus June 27, until they return home July 7th. The Times-Mirror staff, as well as readers of the paper will look forward with real pleasure to the special articles that LeRoy will be sending back from the Jamboree.

Valley Forge Park, scene of the Jamboree, will have a population of 47,000, or more, according to officials of the Department of Forests and Waters. "Due to the size of the 'city of Scouts' the use of the Tourist Camp sites on the park will be restricted to one night use during the Jamboree," Secretary of Forests and Waters, M. F. Draemel says.

This And That: Admiral Kessler James Davis, of Tionesta, will be the principal speaker at the annual Flag Day services in Oil City next Wednesday, it has been announced by a committee of the Japan's 'Grand Old Man,' 94, Promotes Amity With U. S.

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The man who gave this city its famous cherry trees breezed into town the other day to check on their blossoms, renew some old friendships and drop a few words of ominous advice.

He is 94-year-old Yukio Ozaki, known as the mayor of Tokyo and truly one of the most amazing world characters alive today. Advanced deafness is the tiny old man's only sign of his great age. Otherwise he's spry, quick-witted, very much aware of what's going on in the world and not afraid to pass out sage advice.

He alternates using an old-fashioned Japanese ear trumpet and a modern, electric hearing aid, which sort of typifies Ozaki's unique link between the past and present. His record of actively fighting for true liberal political causes for more than 68 years is probably unequalled by any man alive.

Back in 1882, before most of this country's liberals were born, Ozaki dumfounded every citizen of Japan and the world by daring to claim that the emperor shared sovereignty with the Japanese people. He organized a political party to espouse this theory. The group was promptly obliterated.

Next, he became an editor and fought his causes effectively through the press. In spite of cruel persecution he extended his influence and won election to the first Japanese Diet in 1900. He has never failed to be re-elected to that body, probably the longest legislative tenure in history.

HIS greatest fight proved a lost cause, against the rise of the Japanese militarists who ended up plotting Pearl Harbor. In the years before the war, and during it, his life was constantly in danger. He never ceased to fight the warmongers. His house was burned, he was marked for execution at least three times and sentenced to prison.

His tremendous personal popularity among the Japanese people somehow kept him alive and out of jail. In the midst of it he wrote, "Assassination is so popular in Japan it has become a statesman's death."

The cherry tree gift to Washington was made in 1908 by Ozaki as a thank-you for America's help ending the Russo-Japanese war of 1904-5. The first batch of trees were allowed to die before they were ever planted. Hearing of this, he said:

"Starting with their first president, Americans have always been a little rough with cherry trees. I'll send some more with better instructions on how to take care of them."

COMMUNIST control of China is bothering Ozaki most. "Culturally, China is our mother country," he explains, "therefore, you can understand what happens in China will have a great impact on Japan." Recent riots in Tokyo he attributes directly to Communist aspiration. What his countrymen need most, he says, is courage and confidence, which he thinks can only be inspired by America's unwavering stand against the spread of Communism in the Orient. He admits that every Japanese citizen would like to see the end of the occupation. But he also admits that if Japan is to keep any semblance of democratic freedom, it has to be protected by the U. S. Navy, Army and Air Force. How the U. S. is to reconcile these two things, he doesn't say.

Mr. Ozaki, with all his mature wisdom and experience, is not very optimistic about the possibilities of avoiding World War III. With Oriental resignation he shrugs his shoulders and says that only by the complete eradication of the Communist elements in the democratic countries and by ending the spread of communism now, can war be averted.

REPORTING

For the past few days, the breeze has been gentle, the sun mildly warm and the air pure perfume. It's not surprising, then, that almost everyone has been stirred by the impulse to get outdoors.

What one does outdoors would depend, of course, upon personal tastes. One family climbing Bunker Hill could include the following:

The children are scrambling up the slopes that are steepest, crossing the brook where it is wettest and having a wonderful time in general without thinking much about it.

Mother likes cooking outdoors because she doesn't need to worry about spilling flour on the linoleum or washing dishes. She has found a couple of books in the library that are good inspirations: Cook It Outdoors, by Beard, and Cabin Craft and Outdoor Living by Meinicke. These include recipes, techniques in outdoor cooking and firebuilding and many suggestions on what to take and not to take on an outdoor eating jaunt.

Dad yearned to climb mountains when he was a boy and he still enjoys reading about this kind of sport. There are many fascinating details and useful facts in books like these: Hiking, Camping and Mountaineering by Geist; Hiker's Handbook by Leechman, and Pleasures of Walking by Mitchell.

Aunt Hat and Uncle John are nature lovers. They don't have to see a bird but can identify it by its call. The smallest frond of early fern has a personality for them. The few times they're stumped in trying to identify a leaf, a bird, a flower, they hurry to the public library and refer to books like these: Peterson's Field Guide to the Birds; Chapman's Handbook of Birds of the Eastern United States; Harned's Wild Flowers of the Alleghenies; The Illustrated Encyclopedia of American Wild Flowers, by Hausman; Our Early Wild Flowers by Keeler.

Aunt Jane (sometimes known as the Thin Aunt) loves nature with a definite reserve and she is surprised when the worst happens. She has found some very interesting information in the book, On Your Own, by Graham and O'Rourke which was written for forest rangers who might find themselves temporarily astray in wild country. Although the danger of encountering wild animals or even the pangs of thirst on an afternoon walk is pretty slight, still the book has some very good hints on what plants to avoid, how to care for minor injuries and how to best enjoy being outdoors.

As might be guessed, Aunt Jane's husband is usually known as just Aunt Jane's husband. He toils up the road with a large bundle on his back; but, when the family finally reaches the picnic ground, he proves that he does have an interesting mind of his own. The bundle unrolls as a hammock wrapped around a couple of books. While the rest of the family cook, climb and argue, Aunt Jane's husband buries himself in some good hammock literature like Corbett's The Reluctant Landlord or Orme's Comes the Comrade, leaving the rest of them to perspire while he chuckles.

ing and firebuilding and many suggestions on what to take and not to take on an outdoor eating jaunt.

Dad yearned to climb mountains when he was a boy and he still enjoys reading about this kind of sport. There are many fascinating details and useful facts in books like these: Hiking, Camping and Mountaineering by Geist; Hiker's Handbook by Leechman, and Pleasures of Walking by Mitchell.

Aunt Hat and Uncle John are nature lovers. They don't have to see a bird but can identify it by its call. The smallest frond of early fern has a personality for them. The few times they're stumped in trying to identify a leaf, a bird, a flower, they hurry to the public library and refer to books like these: Peterson's Field Guide to the Birds; Chapman's Handbook of Birds of the Eastern United States; Harned's Wild Flowers of the Alleghenies; The Illustrated Encyclopedia of American Wild Flowers, by Hausman; Our Early Wild Flowers by Keeler.

Aunt Jane (sometimes known as the Thin Aunt) loves nature with a definite reserve and she is surprised when the worst happens. She has found some very inter-

Men look trimmer and feel better wearing a Bracer SUPPORTER BELT

Many men, as they grow older, tend to lose their youthful, erect posture. They slump and sag—and of course, frequently put on weight. These two tendencies give them the paunchy appearance that makes them look older, makes their clothes fit poorly.

BRACER Supporter Belt is especially designed to improve posture by applying gentle pressure to the abdomen. This pressure causes shoulders to go back, chest to rise—makes a man look and feel younger—makes his clothes fit better.

Why not come in today and get your BRACER? We are sure you will thank us for the suggestion.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

New York, June 7.—(AP)—Steel mills are pouring out the gray stuff as never before. Customers are clamoring for even more. They are complaining of shortages. They are paying premium prices to get some steel products. And the steel industry is nervous. It's not nervous about orders, or so it says. Few steelmen will admit they look for any let down in demand—at least, not before the snow flies.

What worries steelmen is Washington. When the customers cry about shortages, some one in the government (last time it was the president) brings up the demand that the government be permitted to get in the act.

The argument is: The steel industry won't furnish enough steel-making capacity to meet a growing nation's needs, (because the industry "wants to keep supplies tight and prices high"), and so the government must build steel mills of its own "to protect the public's interest."

Even before the issue is raised this time, the industry is hitting back on two fronts. The American iron and steel institute reports today that 13 states have increased their steel-making capacities in the last 12 months—and the north, east, west and south are all represented.

"Iron Age," widely followed trade weekly, reports today that a confidential survey of the steel companies' plans shows that within the next two years about four million tons more capacity will be added—all by private companies. Pointing up this trend, Arthur B. Homer, president of Bethlehem Steel Corporation, announced last night a thirty-two-million-dollar expansion and modernization program of the company's plant in Johnstown, Pa., increasing raw steel capacity there by nearly 15 per cent.

Private industry's overall expansion plans would mean that between the end of the war and the end of 1952 the United States would have increased steel-making capacity by 11 million tons a year. By comparison, that additional capacity would equal more steel than either France or Germany made last year, and just about half what Russia made in 1949. It would bring total U. S. capacity to nearly 104 million tons.

Nervousness as to the public reaction to stories of steel shortages and to fears that the grey market in steel will become widespread again also is shown in an "Iron Age" editorial:

"The current steel tightness is not due to lack of steel capacity. It is due to a loss of 29 million tons of steel because of coal and steel strikes since the end of the war. If that delayed demand had been filled at the proper time the industry today would not be operating at more than 100 per cent of capacity."

The American Iron and Steel Institute reports some shifting in the order of steel-making capacity among the states: Michigan has moved from eighth to seventh place; California from tenth to ninth.

The 13 states making gains last year, in the order of capacity added, are: Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, California, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Maryland, Utah, West Virginia, Washington, Indiana and Kentucky.

The top ranking 10 states now, in order of capacity, are: Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Maryland, New York, Michigan, Alabama, California and West Virginia.

The Institute also notes that for eight weeks now the industry has been operating at higher than its theoretical 100 million tons a year capacity. Each of the eight weeks it has turned out more than 1.9 million tons of ingots and steel for castings. It has its heart set on turning out almost 25 million tons in the April, May and June quarter to top the previous record—24,093,128 tons in the first quarter of 1949.

Steelmen argue that four million tons additional capacity planned over the next two years will take care of the nation's normal growing needs. They think that part of today's demand is abnormal and that there may be a slackening by the end of the year. They remember that demand slumped last summer—that industry production averaged only 70 per cent of capacity last July, and they know what a drain on their reserves idle steel plants are.

But they also know that when steel is hard to come by, that when prices of this basic industrial product threaten to rise, thus boosting inflation pressure all along the line—the old charge that the mills hold down capacity to keep earnings high will be heard again.

Steelworkers From District Planning Outing at Conneaut

Plans are nearing completion for the third annual picnic sponsored by District 21, United Steelworkers of America, scheduled to be held Sunday, Sept. 10, at Conneaut Lake Park.

Indications are that this year's picnic will attract a larger crowd than those of the two previous years when a crowd estimated at 50,000 persons attended the affair each year. District 21 embraces Lawrence, Mercer, Crawford, Venango, Forest, Warren, McKean, and Erie counties, with a membership of approximately 25,000 in the Steel Union.

One of the principal features of this gala affair will be an Industrial Exposition of products manufactured in plants located in District 21, and who are under contract with the United Steelworkers of America. Thirty companies have to date indicated their intention of participating in the exhibit.

An elaborate program of entertainment has been planned for the day, climaxed by free dancing in the ballroom of Hotel Conneaut, with music provided by a popular orchestra.

L. H. Jenkins of Erie is chairman of the picnic committee and John H. Graney of Sharon is treasurer. Both are staff representatives for the United Steelworkers of America. Miss Virginia Iacobucci, who is employed in the district office in Sharon, is secretary of the committee. Other members of the committee from this area are Paul B. Weaver and Ted Dale. Oil City: Lawrence Armbrurger, Cooperstown, and Radford Smith, Meadville.

Special Ballet Adaptation of Hansel And Gretel To Feature Saturday Show

The main attraction of the Children's Dancing Theatre to appear in the Woman's Club auditorium Saturday will be a ballet adaptation of the Grimm fairy tale, "Hansel and Gretel".

The ballet will follow closely the ever popular children's story, taking the audience from the little cottage home, through the trek to the forests, to the horrid witch's gingerbread house, and their happy reunion with their father and mother at the end of the tale.

To be seen in the leading roles will be Nancy King as Hansel, Phoebe Jewell as Gretel, Justine Weld as the mother, and Dick Rapp as the father. Also Julia Lawson—Sandman, Anne Lewis—elf; Anetta Wineritter—guardian angel; Mary Anna Connolly—Dew Fairy; Anne McBride, Sandy Steinhamp, and Cindy Dick—Cuckoo birds.

A bevy of youngsters, too numerous to mention, will appear as the fourteen angels and the children released from the wicked witch's gingerbread castle.

The second portion of the program will consist of a variety of numbers from the classic ballet corps, musical comedy routines and character dances, to precision and tap ensembles.

As a closing number, the entire ensemble of 95 students will present "A Most Unusual Day" in the true musical comedy fashion.

A special children's matinee will be presented Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Woman's Club auditorium with members of the Warren Children's Home as guests and general admission to all others. Curtain time for the performance will be 8:30 p. m.

Children's Service At First Lutheran Sunday

Young people will have entire charge of the annual Children's Day program at 10:30 a. m. Sunday in First Lutheran church and invite a large congregation for the event.

Leading the processional will be the Intermediate Luther League choir, followed by the flower girls, Kathleen Kehrl and Judith Laufberger, with their baskets of flowers, and David Swanson, who will dedicate the blossoms.

For the program, primary department children will sing two selections, "Loving, Gentle Jesus" and "It's Children's Day". John Ryberg will read the scripture lesson and the Luther League choir will sing the anthem, "Praise, Laud and Honor."

Pastor McCurtis W. Allison will preach the sermon, "What Is Your Name?"

Ushers, from the intermediate department, will be Ronald Wood, John Timm, Donald Ross and Stuart Kornreich.

Radio Group Coming To Clarendon Church

"The Gospel In Song", radio group under the direction of Rev. George P. Atkins of Jonestown, will be in Clarendon Sunday evening, 7:30, in the Evangelical United Brethren church, where the Rev. C. C. Van is the pastor.

These people are well known in Warren county, as they broadcast regularly over station WNAE and have appeared at several Youth For Christ rallies in Warren churches. It is hoped that a large number of their friends will respond to this special invitation to see and hear them.

Their program will feature the girls' trio, trumpet duet, mixed quartette, and selections on the accordion, as well as a gospel message by the Rev. Atkins.

The public is invited.

New Camp Feature
For Older Girls Is Planned This Year

A new feature for older Senior Girl Scouts this year is the C. I. T., or Counselor-in-Training, unit which will replace the former "Beaver" program at Camp Birdall Edey, Warren county Girl Scout Camp at Grunderville.

Eight girls, all campers from previous years at the local camp, will live as a unit with a special staff who will instruct and supervise, for the two weeks of Brownie camp. At the end of this two week period, four of these eight girls will be selected on basis of qualifications to serve as Program Aides for the balance of the established camp season. While they will continue to live in their own unit, they will during part of their day, assist the unit staff members and campers in carrying out the unit activities.

C. I. T.'s of Warren County for 1950 are Carol Zelliff, of Youngsville Senior Troop 54; Rosemary Trigent and Marjorie Marker, both of Warren, Senior Troop 57.

Girls interested in becoming C. I. T.'s when they reach the age of 16 are urged to acquire camp skills through actual camp experience in an established camp.

Registrations for both Brownie sessions for girls from 7 to 10 years of age, from June 18 to 25 and June 25 to July 2 are still being accepted at the Girl Scout office, 304 Market street. Inasmuch as the first two sessions for one week or the Intermediate and Senior Scouts are filled, girls desiring to sign up may do so for either the week of July 20 to 27, or July 27 to August 3rd, arrangements having been made to have some units open during the two-week session for these girls. Registrations should be sent in as soon as possible.

The camp site is a busy place at this time with many adults helping in the many jobs for opening the camp and making it ready for the campers.

Brokenstraw Club Looks Forward To Exhibit at the Fair

Youngsville, June 8 — Brokenstraw Garden Club held a well-attended meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Metro Tenenckuk near Pittsfield, the cooperative dinner served at daintily appointed small tables. The home was decorated throughout with flowers and flowering plants on the lawn included two wild azaleas in full bloom.

Mrs. Tenenckuk, president, was in charge of the meeting which followed the dinner. Roll call response was the naming of favorite roses. Announcement was made of the founding of a new Garden Club at Pittsfield, with 15 members at the organization meeting.

At the business session there was some discussion as to the type of exhibit to be given by Garden Clubs at the Youngsville Community Fair. The group agreed that the Garden Club exhibit, which is in competition for group prizes, should differ from the regular fair flower exhibit and that a committee from the club confer with the fair authorities on the theme appropriate for such an exhibit, in time to be put in the fair book.

Roy McDowell, dirt farmer, gave a talk on some of the rock type of fertilizers. E. C. Stillings reviewed world conditions in his current events talk. O. C. Tritt, Warren, presented Prof. Cooper, of State College, who spoke on "Making and Keeping a Fine Lawn." Mr. Tritt showed slides to illustrate the various points made by the speaker.

The next meeting, scheduled for July 4, was postponed until July 11 at the home of Mrs. C. L. Rapp with Mrs. Samuel Pentecost and Mrs. E. E. Hendrickson as co-hostesses.

X-Ray Surveys Are Completed In 44 State Industries

Harrisburg—The Health Department's Bureau of Industrial Hygiene completed X-ray surveys in 44 plants throughout the State last year (1949), according to the Bureau's annual report released today.

A total of 18,703, or 92 per cent of the employees received the service on a voluntary basis. Each worker X-rayed was notified of the findings and advised to see their physician if necessary. The Bureau made dental health surveys in 12 industrial plants during the year. Complete dental examinations totaled 2,133; dental X-rays 4,274.

Field activities of the Bureau covered 11,506 plants employing 1,299,782 workers. These activities included general inspections, sanitary inspections, engineering studies, medical consultations, etc. There were 182 recommended improvements effected in the working environment of 98 plants and 346 improvements in the health and welfare service of 231 plants.

Through funds made available by a grant-in-aid from the National Cancer Institute a study of environmental cancer in Pennsylvania industry was started in 1949 by the Environmental Cancer Section of the Bureau. This project will include a statistical study and an environmental evaluation of all male cancer deaths which occurred in the general population of Pennsylvania during 1947 and a determination of the relative incidence of cancer in the various industries of the State. A special study of a selected industry will be made.

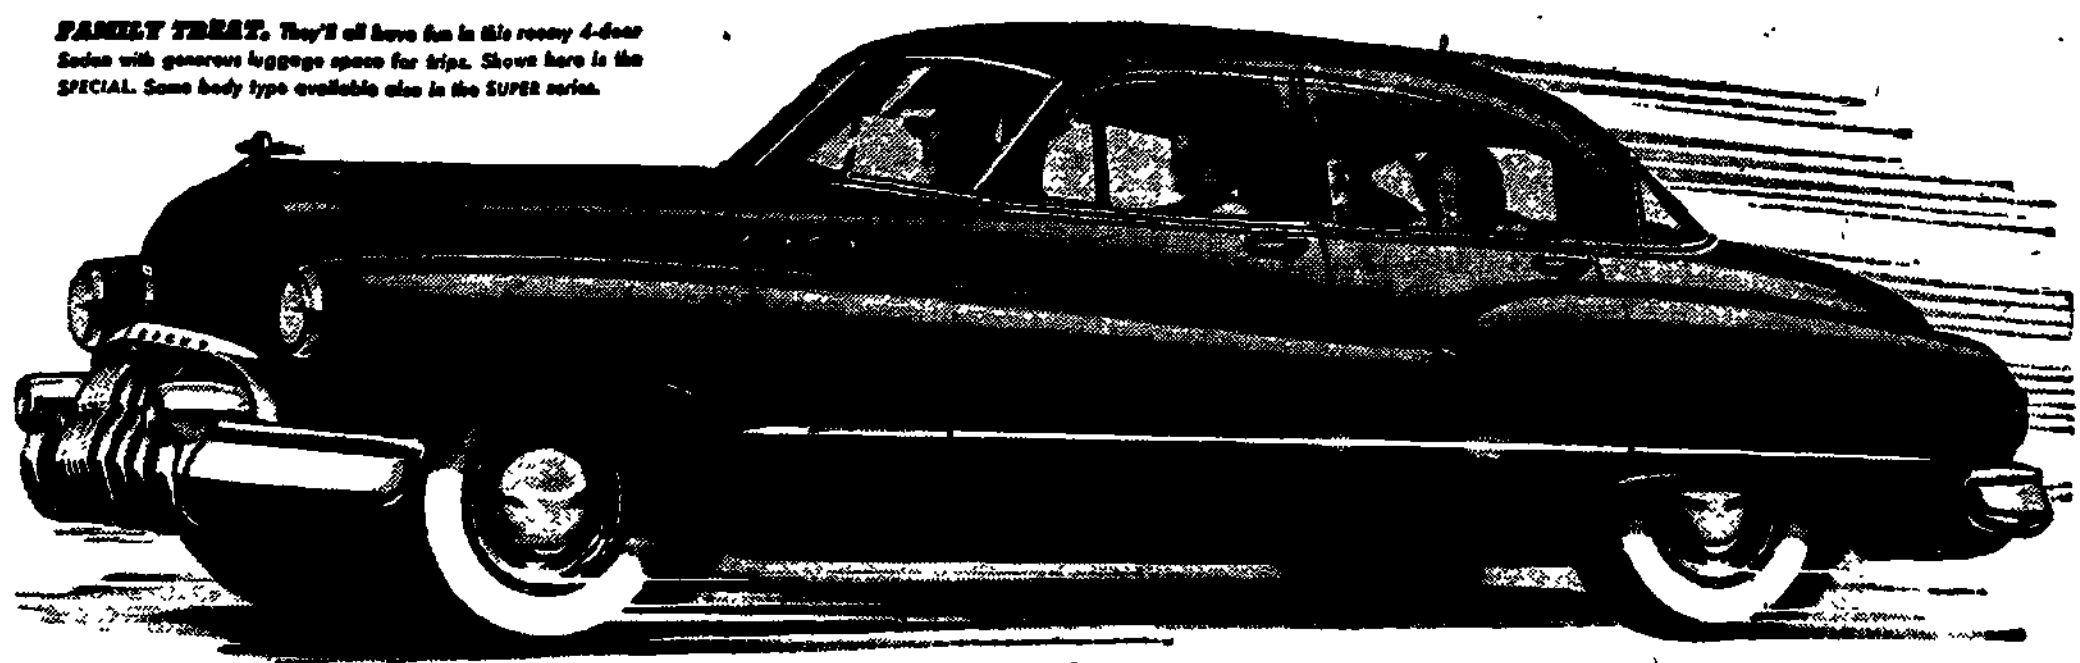

Religious Leaders Will Make a Study Of Child Training

Harrisburg—A state-wide committee of educators and religious leaders today began a study of the religious and moral training afforded children in Pennsylvania.

Known as the committee on Religion and Public Education, the study group will work under the joint sponsorship of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches and the Pennsylvania Council of Christian Education.

The committee will attempt first to ascertain the current relationship between religion and public education in the state. Then it will try to pinpoint issues, trends or situations in public education that need the consideration of churchmen. Ways by which religion and public education can work together will be explored and FAMILY TREAS. They'll all have fun in this roomy 4-door Sedan with generous luggage space for trips. Shown here is the SPECIAL. Same body type available also in the SUPER series.

Look at the FUN you're missing!

SURE we know—a car is a "necessity" these days. A modern family "couldn't get along without one." Or so you tell yourself.

Come, come, sir! We know, and so do you, the real reason you got the new-car fever—and the kind of car you are hankering for.

You want a car with some fun in it, don't you?

A car you'll get a big bang out of every time you see it parked in front of your house—every time you slip into its front seat—every sweet and easy mile you travel in it.

Well, come see what this beauty does for you.

How the doors swing open in warm welcome at a thumb touch on a button. How the broad seats invite you to take it easy. How the big straight-eight under the bonnet snaps into purring life at your toe-touch.

And then note—

How smoothly you slip away from the curb—especially when Dynaflo* is handling the power transmission.

How firm and steady the whole car feels. How it holds on curves, free of "heel-over" and sway. How each coil-sprung wheel quicksteps over bumps and rough spots that mean jounce and jiggle on most cars—how buoyantly road-free a Buick is.

Fun? You bet it's fun—too much fun to miss.

And there's no reason to miss it, really, for this strapping traveler is priced under many sixes. Starts at figures just an easy step above the so-called Lowest Price cars.

What's keeping you from trying one, when the nearest Buick dealer is ready to demonstrate without obligation any time you want to call on him.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on ROADMASTER, optional on others out on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Only Buick has Dynaflo—and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.)

NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and maneuvering, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body-by-Fisher.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT
 This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and maneuvering easier.

FARM ROUNDUP

BY JOHN DEITRICH
Harrisburg—(P)—A group of hard-working scientists at the south mountain research laboratory in Adams county are working wonders in the development of disease resistant fruit trees.

The laboratory already has developed a strain of virus-free cherries which are among the few in the world believed to be absolutely without infection.

The laboratory, located at Arendtsville, Va., in the heart of the southern Pennsylvania fruit belt, is striving to increase the immunity of fruit trees against all types of diseases.

The new virus-free cherry strain is regarded as a major achievement in fruit circles since virus infections are among the more serious of cherry tree diseases.

The two virus diseases, ring spot and virus yellows, are incurable so far, the scientists report. As a result, the only way to combat the disease is to secure buds from trees from the infection.

Dr. John S. Boyle, of State College, in experiments being carried out at the laboratory, has worked out a shortcut method for determining whether or not trees are infected by virus diseases. Boyle inoculates cucumber plants from the trees and the infection, if present, shows up in a few days.

A series of field day programs being held around the state by the Penn State Agricultural Extension Service and experiment station to show farmers the results so far of research in forage crops.

Work with birdsfoot trefoil, bromegrass, meadow fescue, Meadow foxtail Orchard grass, Perennial ryegrass, red clover, reed canary-grass, tall oatgrass, timothy and alfalfa will be viewed at several locations.

Young Future Farmers of America in Adams and Franklin counties are finding their FFA projects profitable ventures.

Some 360 high school students in the two counties who carried out 588 food raising projects during the past year, made a total profit of $52,885. The youngsters, who did $149,775 worth of business in connection with their projects, paid themselves $7,720 for their labor and had a clear profit of $45,165.

Baby chicks are among the fastest growing things on the farm, says F. H. Leuschner, extension poultry specialist for the Pennsylvania State College.

A baby chick fed a normal diet doubles its weight the first two weeks, does it again in the next two weeks, and repeats the performance in the third two-week period. Say Leuschner.

L. E. Stutz

The spring fire season has just ended on the Allegheny National Forest and the lookouts are now engaged in clearing up, and maintaining the public campgrounds and picnic areas for the heavy recreational use that can be expected.

The Northern District comprising over 240,000 acres of national forest land went through the spring fire season with only one tenth of an acre burned over. This fire was the result of 2 incendiary sets by a young man who thought he could get a job as a lookout if he set fire to the woods and then demonstrated his ability to detect and fight fire. Since the two sets were so close together they were recorded as just one fire for statistical purposes.

The greatest improvement in the fire situation this spring was due to the complete lack of railroad fires. The heavy ore trains, with their pusher locomotives, have been the main cause of fires along the edge of the railroad rights-of-way. But a new day seems to have arrived in respect to railroad fire occurrence with the introduction of diesel locomotives. When the railroads become fully equipped with diesel units railroad fires will become a thing of the past. When that time comes 65 per cent of the fires on the Northern District will be eliminated.

Credit for the excellent spring fire record also goes to the men, women and children who by being especially careful when in the woods, or when burning trash in the vicinity of the woods have maintained a perfect "batting average" with no fires on national forest land.

The wet spring was also a factor in reducing the fire occurrence, but there were still a great many days when a fire could have gotten big if someone had been careless with fire in the woods.

Keeping fire completely out of the woods is our goal and with the help of every man, woman and child who uses the Allegheny National Forest such a goal can be realized. Certainly, it cannot without your help.

Although normally the lookout towers will not be manned again until the fall fire season our danger stations will continue to be manned all during the summer and if the weather records indicate that the class of fire day requires the manning of the towers this will be done, and the public will be kept informed of conditions in the woods when there is real danger of forest fires.

Campfire permits will continue to be required throughout the year. The only exceptions are when camping or picnicking at improved public campgrounds or when there is snow on the ground.

Williams Salvage Co. will be more than pleased to take all your waste materials.

Practicing Physician 64 Years

DR. OTIS S. BROWN

The above picture, taken by a staff photographer, is that of Dr. Otis S. Brown, 6 Pennsylvania avenue west, one of Warren's best known citizens and dean of practicing physicians in the county, who this summer begins his 65th year in active practice of medicine in the county, and his 53rd year as a practicing physician in the borough.

Dr. Brown is one of several physicians in the borough and county whose experiences date back to the days of the horse and buggy, lamp lights and trolley cars.

Born in Lander August 3, 1883, he attended elementary and high schools in Jamestown, N. Y., and studied medicine in the Baltimore College of Physicians and Surgeons, graduating in 1908, the year he was married to Gertrude Pond, at Lander.

The well known physician on coming to Warren, formed a partnership with the late Dr. W. S. Pierce, for many years coroner of Warren county, and they had offices in the Library theater building, later occupied by Dr. W. S. Cashman, and presently used by Dr. William S. Walters. The association with Dr. Pierce lasted for twenty years.

Dr. Brown recalls the old days when he practiced in Russell, received $1.00 for house calls in the village and $3.00 when they had to make long drives into the nearby country districts. He says some times they were on the go night and day, and did most of their sleeping in the buggy on the road.

Dr. Brown was a member of the old pension board in Warren from 1897 until it was abandoned in 1900, and believes that his years of service in this capacity may have been one of the longest on record in the nation. It was the duty of the board to hear pension appeals of veterans of all wars, including the Civil War, Spanish-American, and later the Mexican.

Others on the board were Dr. Hazeltine, Dr. Baker, Dr. Love, Dr.

Fire Department Corydon Is Planning An Old Home Week

Corydon, June 8.—Corydon Volunteer Fire Department, held a special meeting, worked out further plans for the Old Home Week celebration and announced the show's site will be the M. J. shall Gardner property, also sufficient electric power will be made available by company of

Among some special attractions planned for the week is an Indian adoption, amateur show, games, parade, pet show and special line for children, with special committees named to take charge each.

Of course, as previously mentioned, there will be a merry-go-round and numerous concessions traditional of the present carnival.

Another important item brought up for discussion was the firemen's annual strawberry festival scheduled for Saturday, June 17. Named on a general committee taking charge were Mr. George Siebert, Mrs. Sam Ruth and Mrs. P. E. Tome.

According to announcement the fair will start at 2 p. m. and continue until eight o'clock, at which a dance will be held nearby IOOF hall. Music arrangements are in charge Clayton Swift, Philip Tome and Carl Swanson. Also arranged are entertainment features for afternoon and early evening strawberry festivities.

Dr. Brown spends his winters in St. Petersburg, Fla., and returned from there several weeks ago.

Whales often "hold their breaths" for as long as fifty minutes. Like other mammals, however, they can drown if they get water in their lungs.

Sons of Italy Shade Hammonds, Suppas Beat Conewango Meres

One-point margins highlighted Sunset Baseball League competition last night.

Sons of Italy mipped Hammond Iron, 7-6, in a hard-fought contest before a crowd of 200 at King field.

At Youngsville, the Suppa Studebakers edged past the Conewango Township Merchants, 2-1, with a large crowd on hand to watch the battle.

Dean Kifer started on the nill for the Sons of Italy and was pitching four-hit ball with a 7-3 lead when Hammonds rallied in the seventh. Swanson went in as a relief chucker for the Sons of Italy and put out the fire. The win was credited to Kifer, his second of the year.

Dick Baker pitched nice ball for Hammonds, but weakened in the fourth and had to be replaced by Kerchner.

Hammonds opened the seventh with Kerchner grounding out and Griffin and Albaugh clouting singles. Shanshala doubled to score Griffin. Swanson then went to the hill to relieve Kifer. Reese tied to Mason and Albaugh scored after the catch, with Shanshala taking third. Shanshala scored on a wild pitch. Fisher singled, but Baldensperger fouled out to end the game.

Highlights included sensational catches by Bob Walker and Ronnie Mason, and Griffin's daring steal home in the fifth. J. Baker, Sons of Italy first sacker, clouted a round tripper.

In the league clash at Youngsville, the Studebakers outslugged the Conewango Township Merchants by a 6-2 margin, but the safeties were not very productive in the scoring department.

E. Haight, Suppa chucker, won his own ball game by doubling in the second to score the Youngsville team's two runs.

The linescore for the Conewango

Cass Michaels Gives Senators Best of the White Sox Deal

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Baseball men contacted are unanimous in the opinion that the Senators got all the best of the six-player deal that sent Scarborough, Eddie Robinson and Kozar to the White Sox for Michaels, Kuzava and Ostrowski.

Cass Michaels is the big difference, they point out. He is perhaps the slickest second baseman in the American League.

Big Bob Kuzava has the mechanics of a great left-hander. The only question is his heart.

Rae Scarborough easily might help a pennant contender, but the Chicago club hardly will be that while he retains his stuff. The latter is especially true now that the brilliant Michaels has been dealt off for no reason at all.

Of the players who figure to help either way, the Washington club got five years the best of it both ways. Michaels, 24, and Kuzava, 27, are that much younger than Robinson and Scarborough, respectively.

NOBODY could understand why General Manager Frank Lane passed Michaels along, leaving Red Corriden without an acceptable second baseman.

The White Sox have a first baseman in 22-year-old Gordon Goldsberry, who would serve the outfit just as well as Robinson at home while being developed.

For these two reasons, close observers anticipated an additional deal or deals.

New York offered the Senators five men for Robinson, who belongs either in Yankee Stadium or Detroit's Briggs Stadium, where his long shots reach the stands. The Tiger hitch was that they have no talent to spare.

The Yanks were also hot for Scarborough. When Clark Griffith refused to listen, Casey Stengel offered the White Sox a package for Kuzava, which in the end was vetoed by General Manager George Weiss. The Red Sox fancied Scarborough.

New York had the inside track, however, for the Yanks possessed surplus material, the second baseman the Pale Hose required in Snuffy Surinweiss, a first baseman in Joe Collins, an outfielder in Jim Delsing, catchers in Gus Niarhos and Ralph Houk and a young pitcher in Don Johnson.

General Manager Lane would have a tough time convincing a sound baseball man that letting Cass Michaels go in swaps bringing in older men was constructive.

boasted a dazzling road record of 20-3, or .870.

This was it. The big test of the early season. If the red hot Tigers could roll over the Yankees and then knock off Boston, they would take charge of the race.

They may do it yet, for it's a three-game series in New York. Yesterday's 5-4 loss to the Yanks was only the opener. But with Tommy Byrne, an old Tiger killer with a 10-2 lifetime record against Detroit, pitching for New York today, the chances are not bright.

Home run power from the bats of Joe DiMaggio, Phil Rizzuto and Billy Johnson swung the balance of power in a tight battle between Lefty Hal Newhouse and Vic Raschi.

Each time the Tigers scrambled into a lead, a zinging Yank home run would pull them back. Finally a single won the game. It was a ball hit by Yogi Berra to Shortstop Johnny Ligon that handcuffed the Tiger infielder in the seventh.

While the Yanks and Tigers wrestled through the hottest afternoon of the New York season, Boston piled up a staggering 20-4 score against St. Louis.

Still very much in the race, the Red Sox blasted 23 hits off Brownie pitching while Joe Dobson rode home easily with his seventh win.

Little Bobby Shantz, 5-foot-7-inch Philadelphia left-hander, pitched the A's first shutout of the year, a 5-0 night victory over Chicago.

Washington snapped its seven-game losing streak, nipping Cleveland 5-4 on Johnny Ostrowski's eighth-inning homer following Irv Noren's single.

Once again Brooklyn took over undisputed possession of the National League lead, whipping Pittsburgh 9-0, while St. Louis took a bad 10-2 licking from Boston. Both were night games.

Don Newcombe, Giant Dodger Negro ace, followed his recent fifth-inning conquest of St. Louis with a six-hit blanking of the weary Pirates.

Rookie Bill McDonald, only Pirate to win a game since May 23, was shelled out in a five-run eighth inning. Pittsburgh now has lost five in a row and 14 of its last 15.

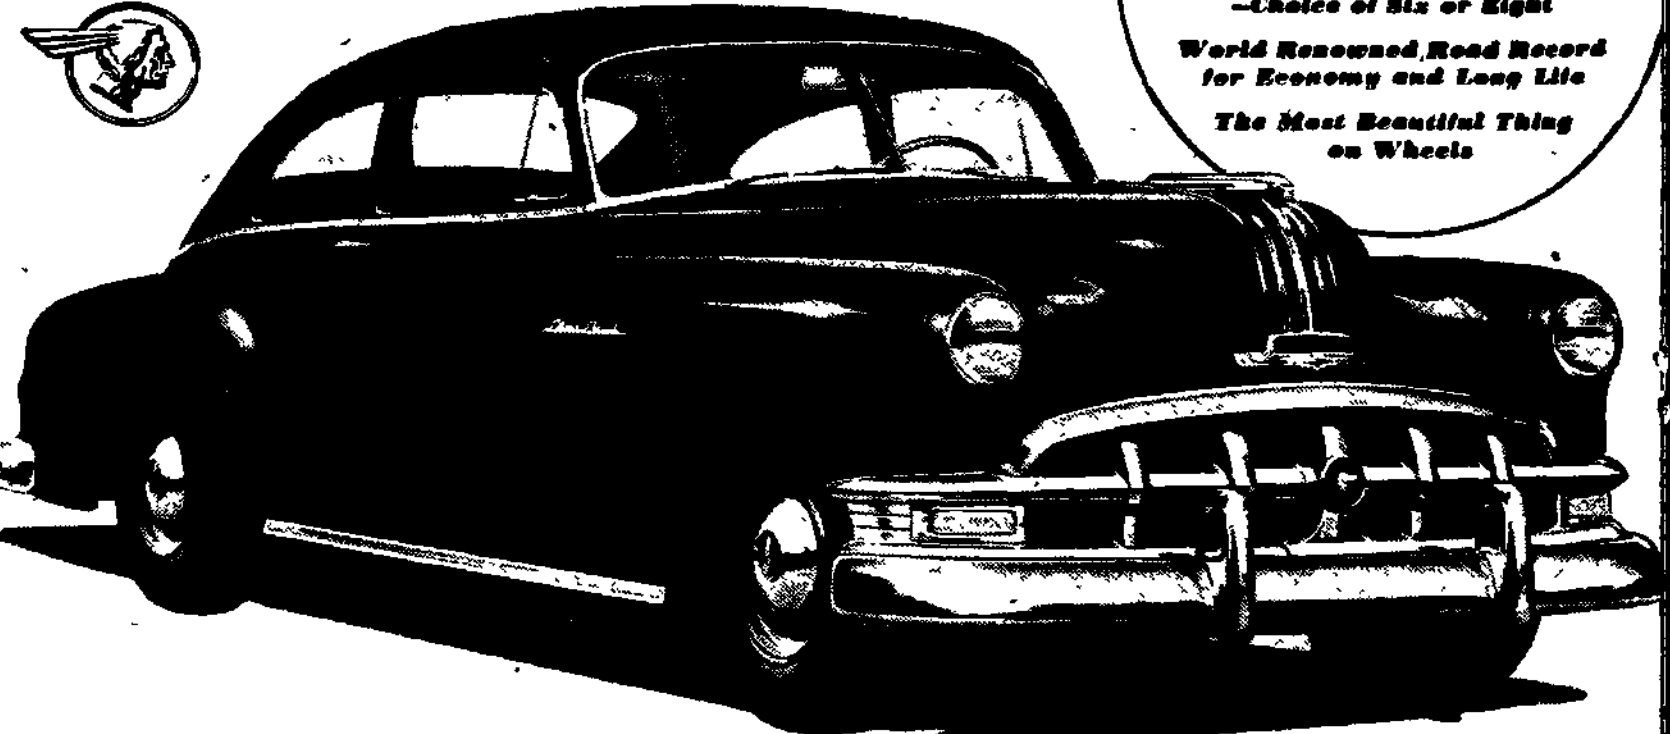

Stan Musial joined the other St. Louis coddles during the loss to Boston's Warren Spahn. Stan suffered a cut between two fingers of his left hand, taking a throw from Al Brazle. He will be out for a day or two.

Rookie Bob Miller, up from Terre Haute, lifted the Philadelphia Phils into second place—ahead of St. Louis and only a half game behind Brooklyn—with a 4-0 victory over Cincinnati. It was the fourth straight win for Miller, who scattered seven hits.

Folks will have to take the New York Giants seriously if they continue to roll up scores like yesterday's 13-4 romp over Chicago. Leo Durocher's Giants have won five in a row and six of seven on their second western trip.

New York Yankees Give Quick Cooling Off To Red Hot Tigers

By The Associated Press

Cooling off the hot clubs is an old Yankee custom. Now it's sizzling Detroit that New York has dunked in chilly water.

Red Rolfe's Tigers stode into the Yankee Stadium with seven straight wins and an 0-02 edge on first place. Unbeaten since they left home, the spirited Detroit club boasted a dazzling road record of 20-3, or .870.

This was it. The big test of the early season. If the red hot Tigers could roll over the Yankees and then knock off Boston, they would take charge of the race.

HOT STOVE BASEBALL LEAGUE

Warren Chapter

Hot Stove Baseball League leaders, meeting last night in Trinity Memorial parish house, approved plans to open league competition next week in the Intermediate, Midget and Bantam loops.

The Bantam loop beginners 8 to 10 years of age will operate on a one-game-a-week basis, with the rest of the time to be devoted to schooling and practice sessions, and practice games under the supervision of team handlers. Bantam games will be played on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 o'clock. Eight squads are entered in this circuit.

Midget League games will be played on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and wherever possible, the games will be scheduled for 6:30 o'clock. This loop is comprised of boys 10 to 12 years old. The 13 teams will be split into two divisions, with a play-off to be held at the end of the league campaign to determine the champion. Although there are three game nights each week, a team will play only twice in one week.

Intermediate League competition for boys 12 to 15 years of age will operate on a similar basis. There are 15 teams entered in this circuit. Game days will be Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Competition in the eight-team Hot Stove Junior League boys 15 to 18 years opened last week.

It also was announced last night that the Warren VFW Post 631 had turned over $108.75 to the Hot Stove League as its share in the proceeds from the Carl W. Ferris Shows which appeared here last week under the auspices of the VFW and the Hot Stove organizations.

Uniforms for the Midgets and Intermediates are expected to arrive within a few days, and Ward Chairmen and District Leaders will be notified by League officers. The area charmen, in turn, will notify team handlers where the uniforms may be picked up. Jerseys and caps for the Bantam circuit also have been ordered, and delivery is expected soon.

Official schedules for the Intermediate, Midget and Bantam leagues will be published in the Times-Mirror.

WNAE Announcer And Singer Takes Position In Erie

Bob Lunquist, staff announcer and popular singer on WNAE for the past year, leaves Warren today to be associated as sports director with television station WICU in Erie.

Mr. Lunquist, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lunquist, Market street, auditioned for the position several days ago, and was notified last evening of his acceptance.

Bob, who is better known to local radio fans as a singer than as a sports announcer, is nevertheless well qualified for his new job. He played basketball with Warren High School Dragons during his school career here, and won an athletic scholarship in baseball at Notre Dame, where he played varsity baseball, filling the hot corner at third base.

He was in spring training with the Pittsburgh Pirate farm system when he was called for service in World War II.

Following his discharge from service, Bob returned to Notre Dame to finish school and decided to try his hand at radio. He has accumulated a large local following as a singer, and has just completed a contract for Mountain Top beverages, singing a weekly show during the winter and spring months.

He expects to continue with his singing, also, at WICU. Bob possesses a voice of unusual range and is developing a nice style.
